Graduation day is called commencement, because it is not so much the end of student life as the beginning of professional or vocational life. Young men and women, as they finish school, step out upon the great stage of life to do a part for themselves in lifes drama. They are no longer to be dependent upon home and school for support and instruction, but they now take up for themselves the tasks of earning a livelihood and of carving out a destiny. The choice of a field of endeavour, a profession, or a vocation requires a stout heart. There is no insurance company to guarantee against a misfit and against economic or industrial incompetency or mistake. There are many examples of the disaster of such incompetency or...
