H63 2005 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)60345705 Excerpt: . . . 11 sponse efforts and the majority decision was not to provide that ad-ditional funding, it is particularly distressing to see these, what ap-pear to me to be very arbitrary and nonsensical elimination of funding for certain areas while others continue at the same or even reduced level. Senator Levin had mentioned the threat assessment. The people I represent, the threat is omnipresent and telling people in one area that their threat is not real in an era where, as September 11 showed, even the inconceivable is possible, just is not something that I can get away with saying in Minnesota and I defer to my colleagues elsewhere. I also want to address later the Transportation Security Agency. One thing we are all experts on is flying and getting in and out of airports and the like, and while there have been some improve-ments there since pre-September 11, there is also, in my view, as a result of some of the management decisions that have been made, less than optimal performance and consistency there. So again, I will look forward to the chance to question you and thank you very much for your dedication to our country. OLLINS Chairman C. Thank you. Senator Domenici. OPENING STATEMENT OF SENATOR DOMENICI Senator D. Thank you, Madam Chairman. OMENICI Judge Chertoff, I didnt ask you to come up and visit with me be-fore you came here to testify because I had no reason to interview you. I already know you. I will...
