YOU PROMISED WHEN THE WAR ENDED.

Trafford Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 188 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. You Promised When the War Ended - Henrietta Rowansforde This is a vivid depiction of life in rural England during the closing years of the Second World War as seen by a lively and imaginative young girl growing up in a close-knit family. Other sights recorded include the presence of seemingly endless convoys of tanks and trucks, men parachuting into nearby fields, and barrage balloons floating above. Despite all this family life continues and the domestic scene is warmly conveyed with the character of the family members keenly developed, and the rigours of their difficulties and the joy of the happy times are all described in the detail only a small child would catch. At the same time her own fears and pleasures are revealed and serve to give a very clear picture of the things that contribute to her growing awareness of family, friends, and other people and their lives. A recurring story in the book is her mother's reminiscences of her courtship with her husband and her journey across land and sea to join him at his post in the depths of Egypt where he was an Officer in command of a far-flung outpost of the British Empire between the wars. Of course Henrietta is already familiar with these stories and gets into trouble for interrupting and even at...
