Excerpt: . . . you look further down--said: If I made inquiries on the lines suggested by Crosbies evidence I should get all the evidence I required. The letter follows, sir: -- Sir, --I am in receipt of your letter of the 23rd. You appear to have overlooked the fact that as counsel representing the guardians did not acquiesce in the Inspectors suggestions, I withdrew my offer, and stated that I de clined to enter into any compact. I am under the impression, however, that if the guardians will question their own officials and the inmates named by Mr. Crosbie in the Court and his evidence, they will have no difficulty in eliciting the facts. If, however, I have been incorrect in this surmise, and you will let me hear further from you upon the subject, I will, notwithstanding the fact that the arrangement was disclaimed by the guardians, take my clients instructions upon the matter. --Yours faithfully, E. Elvy Robb. (Mr. Watts.) Mr. Davy, I want to say a word or twoto you. I believe you have expressed the idea or wish that the Inquiry might get on to what we call the real thing. The industrial condition of the borough. You have disclaimed a lot of this personal matter which has been brought into the Inquiry. I want to know why this is going on. Very possibly some of these things may be necessary, but the vast amount of personal matter that has been introduced...
