SILVER LINING BOOKS, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 180 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In this quick read, you will connect in varying degrees with the circumstances and the reactions that affect many people when tough times occur. You will see through my real-life success and failure stories how powerful choices are. The most important message of this book is that when tough times come your way, the way you react to them will have a tremendous impact on how sweet or sour your life will be. When you make something positive out of negative, tragic, or painful circumstances, you can more easily deal with them. My mother had a choice: to stay complacent and stay on welfare, or to make something of herself and her life. Im glad she chose the latter because she became a great role model with her career-focused determination. It became ingrained in me that people have to work hard for what they want, especially if they dont want to settle for less than they deserve. I learned that I must never give up when I am struggling to achieve my goals because the rewards will be better than the unhappiness and pain. I made a choice to drop out of high school, which did not follow the path of my role model. When I made a choice to drop back into high school, I proudly realized that I inherited some great traits from my mother. Over the years, I have learned how to keep making good things happen--not only in my life, but also in the lives of others. I am empowered to live; but more importantly, I am empowered to do what it takes to live the life I truly want. As a result of my familys...
