Crown House Publishing, 2005. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: This volume is what every busy teacher has been waiting for. With an excellent concise summary of recent brain research and its implications for educators, the rationale is clear for how teachers should begin to differentiate instruction on a daily basis. Using a fishing metaphor which will guarantee a broad appeal, this book offers teachers a variety of strategies to pack into their personal "tackle boxes"! Classroom examples from all age levels provide suggestions for how teachers can orchestrate powerful learning experiences in response to every student's unique needs. In this easy-to- use book, teachers will learn techniques to vary five components of differentiation: content, process, products, pacing, and the environment. Everything needed is here, from how to set up student profiles and establish groups to how to collect on-going feedback and document student progress. Activities that engage reluctant learners, strategies that will help for children with special needs as well as complex tasks to inspire the more able and talented students have been included in this practical user-friendly book. This is the first book in a new series entitled, 'The Teacher Down the Hall '.
