By developing people to do remarkable things both personally and professionally, there is no limitation on what the organization may achieve. A Remarkable Practice uses a music analogy to help communicate business and leadership principles. The first five chapters deal with the characteristics of remarkable organizations, they include: teamwork (musicians), purpose (melody), communication (harmony), systems (rhythm), and customer service (audience). Chapter six is slightly different as it introduces an Action Plan to help stimulate personal leadership ability.
